

Recruitment Pack

[History teacher – January 2018]

Lampton School

a DfE Outstanding Academy & Teaching School

We are seeking to appoint a high quality teacher of history. The successful candidate will be someone who has a strong understanding of pedagogy. H/she will also be well informed about curricular and assessment changes. We are looking for a teacher who believes in the importance of history and has a clear vision of how the study of history can enrich pupils' lives and help prepare them for the future. Lampton is a National Teaching School with a track record of successfully working collaboratively across a range of partnerships. We do this to support the training of new teachers and to promote excellence in other schools. We support all members of our staff to play a role in this work and we are committed to supporting the ongoing development of all our teachers.

History is a popular subject at Lampton. The history department has passion and enthusiasm for delivering a rigorous, creative and engaging history curriculum which enables students to be successful.

At Key Stage 3 we develop students' historical skills and understanding through the delivery of a bespoke curriculum that embraces an enquiry approach. Currently at key stage 4 we teach the Edexcel GCSE qualification. At key stage 5 we teach the AQA A level qualification Outside of the classroom, students' have many opportunities to broaden their historical horizons. Trips include visits to Pembrokeshire in year 7 and to the World War One battlefields in year 9.

The successful candidate would be expected to contribute to the school's overall humanities provision by delivering some geography at KS3.

Lampton School is a mixed, multi-ethnic 11-18 school that gained Academy status through the fast track 'outstanding' route in September 2010. We were awarded Teaching School status in July 2011. Lampton School was judged as "outstanding" in all categories by Ofsted in May 2008 and again in May 2013. It was also featured in the Ofsted report 'Twelve outstanding secondary schools – Excelling against the odds'.

Lampton School actively encourages and supports the safeguarding and protection of all its pupils. This post is subject to an enhanced DBS disclosure.
